The petitioner seeks return of the R.C. Book which has been submitted before the respondent as required by the respondent. The petitioner submits that although a check report has been given as Ext.P3, there is no reason why the R.C book should be retained by the respondent. The learned Government Pleader submits that the petitioner was directed to produce the driving licence of the driver of the vehicle and it is because he has not produced the same, the R.C. Book is not returned, and as soon as the driving licence of the driver is produced and if the same is in order, the R.C. Book would be returned. This is recorded and the writ petition is closed.
